Practical Horsemanship Demonstration in Aid of Riding for the Disabled Stratford-upon-Avon Group

Practical horsemanship is a collaboration between Grant Bazin and Dan Wilson who have been involved with horses their whole lives. The methods they use are those of non violence, predominantly based on the work of legendary American horse trainer Monty Roberts, who Grant and Dan worked closely with for many years, putting their own twists on the methods Monty Roberts pioneered. Grant and Dan help people and horses all over the world on a daily basis. So come and be entertained and educated all in aid of a fantastic cause, the Riding for the Disabled Stratford upon Avon group.
